Our third campout of the 2016 season was held July 18th to the 22nd at the Port of Newport South Beach Annex. It was attended by Celeste V., Karen G., Karen M., Gloria L., Cecil K., Gail F., and Nan O. Claudia A. attended as a guest and Dorothy L. came for several happy hours as well as hosting the group for the pot luck/seafood fest.

Arrival day was Monday and we all arrived to mild coastal temperatures and it was nice most of the week. Several of the campers went across the street from the campground to the Rogue Nation Brewery for lunch.

On Tuesday the group went to the Hatfield Marine Science Center which is a research and education center on the Yaquina Bay. It has educational videos and ever changing exhibits.

Wednesday morning several of the group who were not familiar with Newport too the "nickel" tour of Newport with perennial tour guide Cecil K. After a while the rest of the group met on the historic Bayfront to do a little shopping and to have a nice seafood lunch at Local Oceans Restaurant. Around 3 PM we all met again at Dorothy's home for happy hour and the BEST seafood dinner ever. Crab, Salmon, Oysters and everything to go with them.

After dinner we drove down the street to the end of the road and saw several whales spouting right off of the coast. None breached

While we were there. We also viewed the Devil's Punchbowl.

On Thursday the group went to the Pacific Maritime and Heritage Center on the waterfront. Newport is a fun town and has a lot to offer to keep campers busy.

The campout broke up on Friday with plans made for several members to head out on Monday to follow parts of the Lewis and Clark Trail in Montana.
